High above the foothills of the Swiss Alps, one snowy mountain towers above them all that is only for the bravest of heart. Join us for a musical adventure filled with magic, mystery, and tests of true character! Together we'll climb to the highest peak. Only one question remains... will YOU answer The Call of the Matterhorn? Designed for students at all levels of theatre experience, campers will audition, rehearse, and perform a musical alongside three professional teaching artists...in one week! The Call of the Matterhorn is a brand new production with a script by Katie Colletta and original music by Jason Sifford,

About Footliters Traveling Playhouse:

Footliters Traveling Playhouse is a new touring program of Young Footliters Youth Theatre from Coralville. Together with master teaching artists, we're creating engaging theatre experiences for students across Iowa. Our week-long camps are open to students of all backgrounds, experience levels, and training. Footliters Traveling Playhouse is committed to "engaging and empowering students through an immersive, inclusive theatre experience." We put our students first and collaborate with parents and communities to make our theatre a safe and exciting space for all.
